Business Development Manager (New Opportunities Focus)

Subject: New Role Request – Business Development Manager (Pipeline Generation)

We're looking to bring on a high-performing Business Development Manager to drive new pipeline and generate qualified opportunities for our agency.

This is a pure growth role—focused on opening doors, starting conversations, and creating real opportunities for our sales team.

Role: Business Development Manager (Pipeline Generation)

Overview

We're looking for someone who thrives on outbound, is comfortable operating with modern tools, and knows how to consistently generate qualified meetings. This role is less about closing and more about creating high-quality opportunities at scale.

Core Responsibilities

- Generate new business opportunities through outbound channels:
  - Email campaigns
  - LinkedIn outreach
  - Targeted account-based efforts
- Build and manage prospect lists using tools like Clay, HubSpot, and similar platforms
- Craft personalized outreach leveraging AI tools and research workflows

- Qualify inbound and outbound leads and book meetings for the sales team
- Collaborate with marketing to align messaging, campaigns, and targeting
- Continuously test and optimize outreach strategies for higher conversion rates
- Maintain accurate pipeline tracking and reporting within CRM

Requirements

- Proven experience in business development, SDR, or outbound sales roles
- Strong understanding of outbound strategy and multi-touch sequencing
- Experience with CRM tools (preferably HubSpot)
- Familiarity with modern outbound and enrichment tools (e.g., Clay, email automation platforms)
- Strong written communication skills (critical for outbound success)
- Highly self-motivated and comfortable working in a performance-driven environment
- Ability to manage multiple campaigns and iterate quickly

Nice to Have

- Experience in B2B tech or agency environments
- Familiarity with AI-assisted outreach and personalization workflows
- Background in account-based marketing (ABM) strategies

What We're Looking For

Someone who treats pipeline like a system—not luck. This person should be process-driven, experimental, and relentless about generating opportunities.
