Creative Director (Head of Creative)

Subject: New Role Request – Creative Director (Head of Creative Department)

We're looking to bring on a strong Creative Director to lead and scale our creative team. This role will oversee a team of 5–10 creatives and own both the quality and speed of our output.

Role: Creative Director (Head of Creative)

Overview

This role is responsible for setting the creative vision, managing team performance, and ensuring high-quality delivery across all client work. The Creative Director will balance creative excellence with operational efficiency.

Core Responsibilities

- Lead and manage a team of 5–10 creatives (designers, video editors, content creators)
- Own the overall quality of creative output across all accounts
- Establish and enforce creative standards, processes, and best practices
- Ensure projects are delivered on time without sacrificing quality
- Review and approve key creative deliverables (video, design, campaigns, etc.)
- Manage department capacity, resource allocation, and workflow efficiency
- Own and manage the creative department budget
- Collaborate closely with strategy, account, and production teams

- Identify opportunities to improve speed through systems, tools, and AI workflows
- Mentor and develop team members to improve overall skill level and output

Requirements

- Proven experience as a Creative Director or senior creative leader
- Strong background across multiple mediums (video, design, digital content)
- Experience managing and scaling creative teams
- Ability to balance creativity with deadlines, budgets, and operational constraints
- Strong leadership and communication skills
- Experience implementing creative processes and workflows
- High standards for quality with a bias toward execution speed

Nice to Have

- Experience in an agency environment
- Familiarity with tools like Figma, video editing platforms, and AI-driven creative workflows
- Experience working with B2B brands or performance-driven marketing teams

What We're Looking For

A leader who can raise the bar on quality while increasing throughput. This person should think in terms of systems, not just individual outputs—someone who can build a creative engine, not just create great work.
